

Community Organizing Internship

If you are interested in...

- Making a local impact
- Building community and neighborhood power
- Creating movements and affecting change in your city
- Developing data informed policy and structural change led by community

This is the internship for you!!

Students within the cohort will receive community organizing training through site placements at local nonprofits funded by the Wieboldt Foundation.

The Great Cities Institute will support Wieboldt's training in community organizing, to provide community-informed research reports and analyses

How long: 10 Month Program | 14 hours per week

How much: $1000/month stipend

Where: Trainings at the Great Cities Institute, other locations

Placement: Community organizing nonprofits across the city

Who: Students ready to help catalyze change in our communities

Deadline: March 31, 2024

Apply Today!

Currently recruiting for Fall of 2024.

Email Cover Letter and Resume to vivien.tsou@wieboldt.org